

Chapter 6 Reflective Questions – The Last Mile

1. What are the key challenges for communicating and using evidence? What are the implications of these for the generation of evidence?

2. To what extent are policy and practice informed by evidence in your context? What evidence is drawn on and how is it used?

3. For which criteria in the 6A's framework (accessible, accurate, applicable, acceptable, appropriate, and actionable) is current practice weakest in your experience? Which of these is the most/least difficult to get right?

4. How might the overall WW model of evidence-informed education be tested and developed? What are the roles for a) more methodological diversity, b) educational and technical expertise and their synthesis, and c) two-way models of knowledge exchange?
